

February 2018 Adult Programs

Saturday, February 3, 10-11:30 am

Nature heART Cards with Sean Kane: Take on a creative project for Valentine's Day with Sean Kane. Use nature to create beautiful Valentine's Day cards. Supplies are included.

Please register at the Information Desk as spaced is limited to 12.

Wednesday, February 7, 6:30-8:00 pm

Chocolatier Maria Brandriff: What could be better on a cold winter's day (or any day) than indulging in some rich satisfying chocolate? Maria's presentations include a discussion of the varieties of chocolate available, how to work with chocolate, and teaching the basics of chocolate truffle making. This is a demonstration only with generous samples!

Maria Brandriff, former librarian, dons another hat, that of chocolatier and teacher of all things chocolate.

Please register at the Information Desk as space is limited to 25.

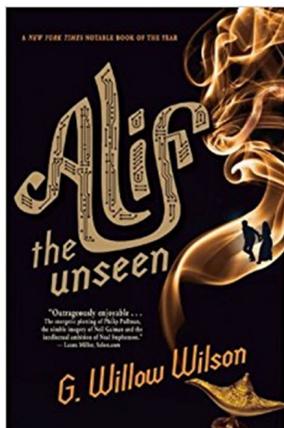

Saturday, February 10, 10-2:00 pm

USPS Passport Fair: Waterford Public Library and the United States Postal Service have teamed up to offer you a convenient and time-saving opportunity. Apply for a passport or renew a passport. New and renewal applications are available in the library. No appointments necessary.

February 2018 Adult Programs

Monday, February 12, 7:00 pm

Speculative Fiction Book Discussion: Secret identities form the axis of author G. Willow Wilson's fast-paced, imaginative first novel, Alif the Unseen — a book that defies easy categorization.

Multiple copies of this title are available in the library.

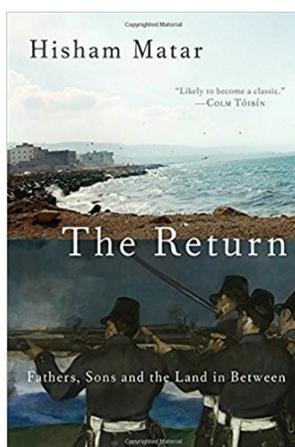

Pam Bedore, Associate Professor of English at UConn, will lead this discussion series.

Tuesday, January 16, 6-8:00 pm

Adult Scrabble Club: Join other Scrabble enthusiasts and play at the library every 3rd Tuesday of the month beginning January 16th. Boards will be provided. This is a free event.

Please register as space is limited to 16.

Friday, February 23, 1:00 pm

Daytime Book Discussion: The Return by Hisham Matar. When Hisham Matar was a nineteen-year-old university student in England, his father went missing under mysterious circumstances. Twenty-two years later, he returned to his native Libya in search of the truth behind his father's disappearance.

Multiple copies of this title will be available in the library.

Lynne Rogers, Professor of English at UConn, will lead this discussion.

ART WALL: Barbara Harvey: small watercolors of the coast along Waterford and Niantic
